Since 1976, beginning with Founder Chuck Colson, Prison Fellowship has been on the cutting edge of work with prisoners, ex-prisoners, and their families. Today, Prison Fellowship is the largest organization in the world working with this group and been directly responsible for lowering crime rates in communities, keeping ex-offenders from returning to prison, and helping to break the cycle of crime in the children of the incarcerated. Come learn how Prison Fellowship is planning to bring its work to Memphis. Aimee will unveil strategies regarding how the faith community and other organizations can partner to stop the cycle of crime, to reduce the cost to their own organizations, and to relax the tax burden on the citizens of Memphis and Shelby County.

This is a free event and a delicious, home made hot breakfast will be served.
